Follow Ladybug Announces New Book, Storm Bugs!

Chattanooga, TN, USA, 10/20/22. Follow Ladybug LLC is proud to offer the debut book from Andrea Zoppo, Storm Bugs, available direct from the website Followladybug.com in Fall of 2022.

Storm Bugs shares a sneak peek under the leaves to see the amazing natural world of our bug friends and more. Fun to read and a total visual delight, you and your family will enjoy each beautiful page and a glimpse of creatures living their lives outside when many of us run inside to avoid the rain. Come find out what happens during a storm, you might be quite surprised.

Book Info:

8.5 x 8.5 glossy soft cover.

Written in Signal Mountain, TN, USA

Printed in Alpharetta, Ga, USA on partially recycled paper

Illustrations crafted using a colored pencil technique

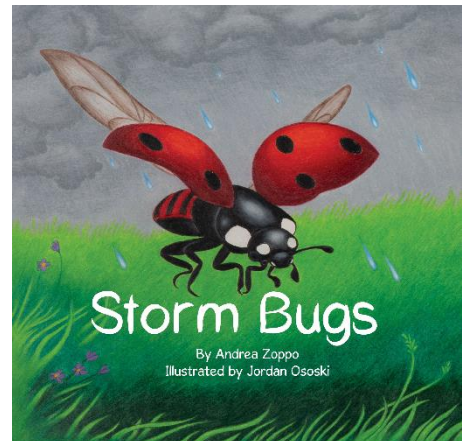

Language is poetic, whimsical, fact-filled, and rhyming

Great for all ages and especially for early learners

Reviews:

“Andrea's rhymes and Jordan's illustrations made me want to crawl into the pages and hide under a leaf to watch the storm!” - Author Stephen Wing

“My 8-year-old and I had a great time reading Storm Bugs and searching for the hidden ladybugs on each page. I highly recommend this book for it's writing and illustrations, both.” - DeKalb County Park Naturalist Jonah McDonald
